Junior High School

Milestones in Education

Consolidation of schools in the Beaver Area received its start in 1952 with the formation of a Jointure. Its resolution into a union or merged district required the approval of the citizens in each unit. This was approved by the voters in November, 1953. July 7, following, saw the beginning of the Beaver Area School District, composed of Boro and Brighton Townships, Bridgewater and Beaver Boros.

This year is also noteworthy from the fact that a new wing and a cafeteria were added to two buildings—the Brighton Township School and the Senior High School. The gymnasium of the high school was reconstructed to provide greater facilities for classes conducted there. As a final touch, the beautiful, new cafeteria was opened to the student body on February 1. At the present writing, plans are under way for a new Senior High School, the site of which has not been officially disclosed, although several are being considered.

Looking into the future, it appears that the growth in enrollment in the Beaver Area Schools will look somewhat like this:

	Grades 1 to 6	Grades 7 to 9	Grades 10 to 12
Present	1875	730	500
Estimated for 1957	2000	830	610
1960	2200	930	790

Mr. R. Glen Smith

And Proudly Dedicate Our Shingas To

"A friend in need is a friend indeed!" So goes the old saying. We have found that Mr. R. Glendon Smith, our effervescent, happy-go-lucky commercial teacher is—a friend indeed. Always willing to help, offer counsel, or buoy up one's spirits when they are dragging—he is known and loved by everybody in and around the high school.

"Smitty," a name by which he is well known, was born in Grove City. Upon graduation from Grove City High School, he enrolled in Valley Forge Military Academy and was a member of its first graduating class. Returning home, he entered Grove City College where he received the degree, Bachelor of Science in Business Administration.

The next stop in his busy, happy life was in Springdale, Pennsylvania. There he taught commercial subjects in the high school for two years. Moving to Beaver in 1936, he took over much of the work of the Commercial Department and in his stay here has taught every subject which it offers.

To show his versatility, Mr. Smith substituted in the Physical Education Department for two years during World War II. At that time he organized, trained, and commanded a "Victory Corps," which won much acclaim in the community.

In addition to teaching a full schedule of classes each year of the 18 he has been in Beaver, he has, at various times, served as sponsor of the Bobcat Club, the senior, junior, freshman classes, and as drill master for the majorettes and cheerleaders.

With all such activities, it is surprising to see the pep he displays in his walk, in his actions, in his classes, in fact, in everything.

So we, the class of 1955, recognizing his abilities, his understanding nature, and his love for young people, are happy and proud to dedicate our "Shingas" to our good friend,

"Smitty."

In Appreciation

One of the biggest little jobs to be done in Beaver Senior High School is that of producing the Shingas. Each succeeding Senior Class faces the task of making contracts, selecting covers, arranging pictures, and planning the layout, as well as a myriad of other problems. Without someone with experience and know-how to guide them, many of these would go undone or worse still, the book might never get to press. With 16 years of advising experience behind him, Mr. William W. Paterick provided the necessary instruction to our staff so that we could present the largest and, we think, the finest Shingas ever published. For all his advice, supervision, and help, we sincerely express our thanks.

Along with the work of the Shingas Adviser, comes the herculean task of managing the finances, directing the projects, and planning the Senior banquet and dance. Taking up these new duties as Senior Class Sponsor, Mrs. Jo Etta McLaughlin has done an excellent job of aiding us in our many activities. Through the class officers and committees, her steady hand helped the class in a very profitable wreath and candle sale, a wonderful dance and the financially successful promotion of the class play.

Mere words are inadequate to express our thanks to Mrs. McLaughlin, but we want her to know that we really do appreciate her help and guidance during our last year in high school.

John S McClements

JOHN S. McCLEMENTS
Business Manager

Mr. John S. McClements, Business Manager for the Beaver Area District, has assumed the responsibility of directing the financial affairs of the schools. He was employed during the past summer to take over these duties formerly conducted by the superintendent. From his office in the high school building he quietly and efficiently goes about the tasks of paying bills, making up payrolls, managing the cafeterias, handling purchasing contracts, and doing all things specifically business in their nature.

SUPERINTENDENT OF BEAVER AREA SCHOOLS

Chandler B. McMillan

Any period of transition is never easy. To undergo a change from four school districts operating independently along some lines and collectively along others to a consolidated union requires many long hours of careful analyses, planning, and preparation. This is what the Beaver Area School District has recently completed under the guidance of Dr. C. B. McMillan and a board of 22 directors. The work is not yet complete but under such capable leadership we can look forward to an even greater advance in education when the new high school building becomes a reality.

The Class of 1955 would like to express its gratitude to Dr. McMillan and the board for what they have done for us while we were in high school.

Supervision

Mr. Charles S. Linn, our senior high school principal, was to be found in a new setting this year. With the completion of the new addition to the old high school—his office was moved to its new location. With more space and much more privacy, Mr. Linn and his efficient office staff were able to go about their appointed tasks of operating an ever expanding program of education.

May we, the class of 1955, pause here in our life, to sincerely thank Mr. Linn for the many kindnesses shown us, for the helping hands extended on many occasions, and for his wise, experienced counsel. We do appreciate all that he has done for us.

Mrs. Mary Grove, Secretary

Mary Grove

May we also express our sincere thanks to Mrs. Mary Grove for the gracious and efficient manner in which she handles the 1000 and 1 problems that confront her daily. Her quiet composure allays the fears of the most timid or quells the turbulent emotions of the most daring.

MRS. BEULAH V. COOK, A.B.
GUIDANCE COUNSELOR

Beulah V. Cook

Guidance

Guidance, as a specialized service in a school system, is of comparatively recent origin. Formerly, the task of counseling students, vocationally or otherwise, fell generally to the teachers or more specifically to the principal.

In keeping with modern trends, the Beaver Area School District now has provided a full time guidance counselor in the person of Mrs. Beulah V. Cook. From her office, adjacent to the principal's, she directs the activities designed to show the interests and aptitudes of the students, give counsel to the confused, assist in college plans and in other ways direct the students' attention to a better life.

May we, the Class of '55, take time to express our sincere thanks for the comfort, peace, and inspiration Mrs. Cook has brought to our troubled minds during this past year.

Wilma P. Jones, Clerk and Switchboard Operator

Mrs. Janet Williams replaced Mrs. Jones as clerk and P. B. X. operator on January 31, 1955.

Junior High Principal

William L. Charlesworth, present principal of the junior high school, is best remembered by the Class of '55 as our biology teacher. Then for a short time, he served as guidance counselor before his appointment as junior high principal.

We know that Mr. Charlesworth, whether as a guidance counselor or a principal, will be doing his best.

Our best wishes, Mr. Charlesworth.

CHARLOTTE JAN EAKIN — '55

-In fondest remembrance of our dear friend and classmate--

"I regret to announce, Jan Eakin died at 9:12 this morning." These cryptic words from Mr. Linn, our principal, at noon on February 3, 1953—struck sadness into the heart of every student and teacher who knew her. To lose a friend is bad enough, but to lose a friend such as Jan, is indeed tragic.

Charlotte Jan Eakin was born January 8, 1938, in Rochester, Pennsylvania, where she lived until she was ten. She attended the Adams Street School for five years before her family moved to Vanport. Her elementary education was completed in the school there before she entered Beaver Junior High School. Perhaps her greatest thrill came when she was chosen a junior high cheerleader. Entering into her duties with such great enthusiasm she won the friendship and admiration of students and faculty alike. Jan had many hopes and dreams for the years ahead in high school.

The first of these dreams was realized when, in her sophomore year, she was elected secretary of the Bobcat Club. Later, in November, she was selected as a cheerleader. Now, she knew, she was on her way. Many adventures were challenging her and with her characteristic enthusiasm, her friendly personality and her will to win she was bound to succeed.

Her untimely death, however, cut short the opportunity to do all those things which she had planned. We grieve at her going and mourn our loss but we can agree with Edwin H. Parker as he said:

"Life's race well run,
Life's work well done,
Life's victory won,
Now cometh rest."

About the time we thought we would be able to order the seventh and eighth graders around as we had been, we suddenly discovered we were in a new and beautiful building and once again the lowest class on the ladder of learning. Oh well—some day we'll be seniors and we'll have the distinction of being the biggest and we hope best class ever to leave Beaver High School.

Shingas

Standing Mr. W. W. Paterick, Pennie Pollock, Rae Nancy Fife.

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for a Senior Class to publish another Shingas, and to assume, among the graduate classes of former years, the great and exalted position to which their yearbook entitles them, a decent respect to the student body compels us to declare the work attached to such an undertaking.

We hold these truths to be self-evident: editors, reporters, artists, typists, salesmen, and many others are needed; advice must be secured; contracts must be signed; plans must be made; deadlines must be met, and then a new book is born.

The history of the present book is a history of repeated urgings and admonitions by the adviser and editors, all having in direct object a better product, a higher sales, and a greater number of "Oh's!" and "Ah's!" when the Shingas appears in May. To prove this, let the facts be submitted to a candid school.

The adviser selected Lee and Lou to organize, plan and coordinate the building of the book.

They selected Joe, Pennie, and Rae to plan, conduct, and complete the best sales campaign ever.

They put artists, photographers, and writers to work producing the best for the pages of the Shingas.

He coerced, cajoled and counseled everyone into doing his best so that the Shingas would look the part.

He contrived with others (business firms) and gave his assent to their actions in order to:

Save money by contracts;
Save money by discounts;
Secure greater services from those companies for the benefit of the class.

They have given time, energy, and thought to the overall plan.

They have exerted influence on all others to cooperate in getting the Shingas ready on time.

He has and does praise the staff, the class, the faculty, and the student body for wholehearted support.

Therefore, we, the class in final meeting assembled, do solemnly swear that we are, and of a right ought to be, proud of our Shingas and that it has full powers to assume among all other fine Shingases its proper station in life, and with firm reliance in our integrity, we mutually pledge our loyalty, our payments, and our sacred autograph—"Best of Luck to a Swell Kid."

"There's a stampede in the girls' locker section. Get that story!"

These familiar words have been heard many times by members of the Journalism class, consisting of 14 news-hungry students. Under the direction of Mrs. Beryl Bell, the co-editors, Dawn Holt and Don Newroth, assume the responsibility of publishing the Echo and also keeping the town posted on happenings around Beaver High School through the pages of the Beaver Valley Times.

The Journalism students also learn various operations of publishing a newspaper, which includes editing, and setting it up for press.

Any junior high school pupil who wants to know the latest news and gossip gets a copy of the junior high newspaper, the Keyhole. The 40 members of the Keyhole staff work hard to cover all school events and activities of interest to the students. The mimeographed paper includes sports events, clubs, puzzles, and drawings. At the beginning of each school year, members of the staff are chosen by written applications. With the aid of the sponsor, Mr. Elroy Dalberg, the editor, Jo Ann Mark, and the staff, the school paper is published every six weeks.

Spanish Club

"Buenos dias señor." This is the typical welcome given students entering room 204. Here, under the capable leadership of Miss Lawson, students of first and second year Spanish have an opportunity to use the language in an entertaining way. This club, one of the largest in the school, meets monthly.

The officers are as follows: Sarah Shaw, president; Ann Ferguson, vice-president; Pennie Pollock, secretary; and Craig Thomas, treasurer.

"Smile! Say cheese!" This is what the forty active members of the Camera Club are saying everywhere they go. Under the direction of Mr. Stanley Belfore, the members of the club took pictures of the Senior Dance, the Football Dance, and the Junior Prom. Many field trips to points of interest in Pittsburgh show the members' determination to stimulate interest in photography. The shutterbugs, aided by Don Knapp, president; Jane Trishman, vice-president; and Janice Hencel, secretary-treasurer have many interesting activities and programs.

F. T. A.

The Future Teachers Club of America consists of 25 seniors interested in the teaching field as a vocation. Their interests range from elementary education in kindergarten to specialized subjects such as math or science. This organization follows the suggestions of the National Education Association. Some activities of the club are, assisting in the elementary grades while special programs are in session and helping with classroom duties of the high school. The officers of the club are: Hank Feely, president; Dottie Wimer, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Beulah V. Cook, sponsor.

Featuring a hard working membership under the leadership of president Kenny Lee, and secretary-treasurer Bob Stevenson, the Music Appreciation Club experienced the most successful year of its existence. Cut down to a small group of 30, the club made many attempts to further their knowledge of music. Highlight of the year was a trip to the Syria Mosque in Pittsburgh to hear "The Messiah". Congratulations are due to the officers and to the sponsor, Leslie Marietta.

Remember the girl who rubbed alcohol on your arm for the T. B. patch test? She is a Future Nurse of America. Miss Ruth Fisher and Mrs. Irene Benner, the sponsors, have taken the thirty members of the club to many hospitals and schools of nursing. These trips and the monthly meetings show the girls how nursing tasks are performed. The president, Gail Gallio; the vice president, Karen Riggs; and the secretary-treasurer, Martha Shema lead the girls in the purpose of the organization—promoting better health.

All those interested in big explosions, falling weights, and science in general, meet once a month in room 205. The Senior Science Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Nevin W. Reber, has interesting experiments and movies, and makes a visit each year to Buhl Planetarium, where several members enter projects. Various members plan and conduct each meeting with the assistance and advice of Mr. Reber.

The officers of the club this year are: Lou Pondy, president; Judy Mills, and Don Knapp, vice presidents; Betty Kunsman, secretary; and Art Cornell, treasurer.

Senior Hi-Y and Junior Hi-Y

Due to the separation of the ninth grade from the seventh and eighth grades this year it was found necessary to organize two Hi-Y units. Mr. Stanley Belfore was named as sponsor of the unit comprising the ninth and tenth grade members; Mr. Elroy Dalberg, Mr. Ralph Miller co-sponsored seventh and eighth grades.

Since the Junior High group is in its third or fourth year of operation its plans are quite well defined and in good operation. The Senior High group's plans, while extensive, are as yet, not definite.

Monthly meetings are held in which plans are discussed, movies shown and projects developed. The future looks encouraging for both groups if enthusiasm can be maintained.

Officers of the Senior High group are Tom Koss, president; Frank Cucinelli, vice-president; Fred Lloyd, secretary; and Joe Sailor, treasurer. For the Junior High group the officers are Weston Wilhelm, president; Bill Wolz, vice-president; Allan Creps, secretary; and Bill Brew, treasurer.

Isles, L. Walsh, J. Bloom.

The Senior High Student Council consists of one representative from each home room in the high school and the four class presidents. This organization meets once every two weeks to discuss school problems. Locker inspection and the decoration of Christmas trees are two of the tasks of the Student Council.

Miss Fox sponsors the organization with the help of the following officers: John Barley, president; Anthony Toarmina, vice-president; Jane Potter, secretary; and Don Stahl, treasurer.

The Junior High Student Council, sponsored by Mr. William L. Charlesworth, consists of two representatives from each homeroom, as well as the seventh and eighth grade officers. Annabelle Lang, president; Mimi Catanese, vice-president; Florence Pettler, secretary; and Susan Rice, treasurer, direct the bi-weekly meetings. In past years, with profits realized from selling tickets for the Junior High Variety Show, a new office adding machine, a traffic blinker, records, and Christmas decorations have been bought for the school.

A milestone in Beaver's Tri-Hi-Y history was passed this year. Two clubs were formed; one for the juniors and seniors, called the Alpha Chapter, and one for the freshmen and sophomores called the Beta Chapter.

The Alpha Chapter had many projects this year; a mum sale, helping needy families at Christmas, the Thanksgiving Assembly, and a spring fashion show. Donna Rae Shupe was elected to represent the central-west district at the Model U. N. Assembly. Other girls were delegates at the Older Girls' Conference and at various other rallies.

Mrs. Adelaide Burry sponsors the club with the aid of the following girls; Margie Speer, president; Joan Brew, vice-president; Dawn Holt, secretary; Karen Riggs, treasurer; Donna Rae Shupe, chaplain; and June Stuck, historian.

Scholarship and Leadership

Alpha Chapter of the National Honor Society was reactivated the past fall with seven members. Lee McDonald, Lou Pondy and Sarah Shaw acted as president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer respectively. Dawn Holt, Don McMillan, Don Newroth and Dolores Marangoni completed the personnel. In February 1955, at an impressive ceremony with a court trial as its theme, the following were inducted into membership: Mike Baker, Beth Bloom, Joe Carver, George Churm, Art Cornell, Hank Feely, Rae Fife, Susie Frazier, Gail Gallio, Jo Anne Henry, Judy Royer, Margie Speer, Jean Trishman, Dottie Wimer.

Qualities of character, leadership, service, and scholarship are the determining factors in membership. As in former years Miss Cathryne Esenwein is sponsor of this group.

The Presidents Council, composed of organization and club presidents, editors, captains and other outstanding leaders in the school, is organized by its sponsor, Principal Charles S. Linn. Problems of leadership, coordination of extracurricular activities in the school, and general leadership in the student body, are three of its major yearly projects. This group has no officers.

Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mr. B. Nelson Maurer, meets Monday, Wednesday, and Friday of each week. The members are chosen yearly by Mr. Maurer. A great number of the girls have been members of the Girls Chorus. Open house, the Christmas assembly and the Spring Choral Festival were highlights of this year's program. The Select Chorus, a smaller group chosen from the Mixed Chorus, sings for various organizations and exchange assemblies. This year Janice Hencel, Sarah Shaw, Judy Royer, Bill Fuller, John Barley, and Bob Stevenson represented Beaver High School at the Midwestern District Chorus. Officers of the Mixed Chorus were Jerlene Wright and Pat McAllister, librarians, and Sam Wilson, secretary. Kris Coleman and Pat McAllister were the Girls Chorus' librarians.

The annual Football Dance, sponsored by the Sophomore Class under the direction of Mr. Rogers, was held in the gym on November 24. Considered by many to be one of the most delightful dances of the year, it was highlighted by the crowning of Nancy Turner as queen, attended by Elsie Shuster and Peggy Supler. Escorted to the throne by the co-captains, she was crowned by Phil Icenhour, as Neil Avery and Denny Kunkle, the other co-captains looked on in company with the royal attendants. The crown bearer and sceptre bearer were Eddie Snyder and Nancy Stahl respectively.

Attractively decorated in red and white with an array of roses imbedded in a trellis behind the throne, the gym presented a very colorful setting for the gay and festive occasion.

THE RECESSIONAL

The royal court was made up of eight senior girls: Marianne Anderson, Sandy Bixler, Mary Estelle DeWitt, Judy Hult, Rosalie Leis, and Janet Reising, who provided a beautiful background for their queen, vivacious Frances Cucinelli. Queen Fran, wearing a white lace gown which set off her curly black hair, was crowned in traditional May Day fashion by the Maid of Honor, pretty Helen Jean Bloom.

The dances, on the theme "This is My Country," were cleverly arranged by Mrs. Genevieve G. Truter, with the help of Rosalie Leis and Judy Hult. Happy sailors danced a lively hornpipe; charming Southern belles a graceful waltz, set off with a solo by Rosalie Leis. Petite little girls carrying books and slates gaily tripped to "palsy-walsy", while comical scarecrows loped their way across the field. Snappy cowboys, doing a precision routine, made a nice appearance in their bright costumes. Country folks doing the Varsouvianna, an old American folk dance; and the traditional May Pole dance brought to a close another impressive May Day program.

To the Band, under the leadership of Mr. Leslie Marietta, much credit is given; to the script writers, Sally McClements, Janet Reising and Mary Shaw, and to the announcers—Joan Brew and Charles Farrell—many thanks are extended for their efforts in making the evening's performance so successful.

And Away We Go!

ACT I

And away we go, back through the years
To Sophomores big without shyness or fears.

Mr. Linn has replaced Mr. Shaffer and we are in a new place
The building is huge with so many kids, we don't know a face.

Trying to find lockers and classes, we were told the way
And found there was no sixth floor or elevators like they say.

We soon got into the swing of things when football season came
But somebody must have goofed, because we lost every game.

Then to our Football Dance, the neatest of them all
Under red and white streamers, we really had a ball.

Our basketball season was cruel this year
With 4 wins and 16 losses, Cutri's bitter we hear.

But this is one year that will remain in our heart
Because Jan Eakin left us and went on apart.

Remember kids, she's watching over you and me.
Let's give her something really grand to see.

La Vie En Rose was a perfect prom with white and pink
And the after prom party at the roller skating rink.

There were lots of neat dances and parties you bet,
With loads of nice kids that we finally met.

Grrrr. One of these days, Mr. Charlesworth, one of these days!
Ug, those horrible grasshoppers and worms have a way.

We couldn't say Bugology was all bad though,
'Cause look at the neat field trips, and away we go.

First to Pittsburgh to see the museum, flower show, and zoo
We thought for sure the monkeys would keep Daisy, too.

Then too, there's the trip to Cook's forest to recall
What a panic and riot was had by us all.

The Senior Dance was dandy and to another class goodbye.
How dreamy it was when the band played "Tell Me Why?"

Time for the last assembly and the Shingas goes to Mr. Linn
Now to report cards and a promotion we win.

Next year we'll be dandy, dandy Juniors and almost through Hurry back to B. H. S. we'll be looking there for you.

ACT II

School days, here we go again, let's see, is every one back?
There's Jackie, Betty, Ann, guess no one is to lack.

There certainly are a lot of Juniors behind the wheel
Have you seen Ted and Frank race and peel?

"Let's go Juniors, set a new record." That's what we heard.
When we started our magazine sales—we got the word—

Hooray! $5668.16. Now Seniors, what do you have to say?
Guess, we showed them. Now let's get whippy and gay.

Mother Is A Freshman, was our wonderful class play.
After a lot of work and practice, it went off okay.

What a whippy, dippy Senior Dance they had that year.
With snowflakes, two sleighs, and white reindeer.

Of course, nothing could compare with our "March Fantasy"
The prom to end all proms, it was something to see!

At one end was a waterfall with colors abright
And flowers surrounding a small cottage of white.

The bandstand was covered with daisies of yellow
And didn't Tom Cody's orchestra sound sweet and mellow?

Who could forget that Post Prom Party? It was a riot.
And by the looks of things no one pretended to be on a diet.

The entertainment was super with Bobby Caputo's band.
The Mulcays, that drummer and dancer, best in the land.

When we got home that morning we were awfully tired, but happy
Hoping no one was mad—especially Pappy.

Seven in a row and no holiday. What a sin!
The poor football players will lose the spirit to win.

We got the afternoon off, 'cause Mr. Linn came through true blue.
But he was so nice about our little revolt, I felt bad, didn't you?

Steadies could be seen at the dances or as the "Honeymooners of the Hall".
Guess our class wasn't passed by when cupid was on call.

Hearts weren't all that worked though, because brains were active too.
Our new members in the N. H. S. were the best we knew.

A very good selection we all agree, good luck to next year
When we choose some more to join with thee.

"Just the facts, that's all, just the facts," and an honor goes to Mr. Reber
The dedication of the Shingas for 27 years teaching in Beaver.

The Maypole made ready, girls dancing in gym class, guess now we're on the beam
'Cause we're ready for May Day, and crowning our queen.

All went well and we found new talent from the Varsouvianna Dancing
And didn't Fran, our lovely queen, look entrancing?

Well kids, guess this just winds up our Junior year
Har-har-hardy-har. Next year is ours. You can bet we'll be here.

ACT III

Hi, glad to see you back. Let's go to assembly, okay?
Our usual welcome back to school, Seniors dismissed.
Oh, Happy Day!

Football days are here again. Look who's rough and tough
Ike, Kunks, John, Churm, Jerry, Neil and Earle are hard to bluff.

Wally, Jim, Ted, and Fred were always on the beam
They were an asset to any great high school team.

We had a 4-4-1 season, full of excitement and fun.
Our student body was always on hand to watch them kick and run.

The Football Dance was a huge success with Ike crowning Nancy
Attended by Denny, Elsie, Neil, and Peggy, it was really fancy.

The ghosts are coming hooray, hooray. This means MacBeth
He has struck again. For Seniors, it's a matter of life and death.

Never forget our wreath and candle sales, and money that we made
Or that "Shingas Hideway." It's a wonder there wasn't a raid.

Hot darn. Time out for the holidays, filled with dances and parties
We heard some of our class were under the weather, the smarties.

Wasn't the Christmas night dance neat, and the Bobcat Dance in the gym
Ummmm-boy. That New Year's Eve dance with the lights turned dim.

Well, back to school again in nineteen fifty-five
After that vacation we felt more dead than alive.

Honest, we didn't do anything, Mr. Paterick, But - - - he took us to court
The way they looked at us, we must have looked the criminal sort.

The gym is buzzing with excitement, because the boys are trying
To do their best to get on the team, with basketballs flying.

Our Seniors are making a showing for themselves this year.
With Tom, Joe, Don, Neil, and John, we have nothing to fear.

The school record was broken by Don Hayes and Earle Stout
With 33 points each, these boys we can't do without.

But what's this? Something's wrong! Some kind of p!ague has hit
Twenty, thirty, a hundred! This thing's getting out of hand a bit.

We thought for sure they'd change our dear Alma Mater
To "Pop Goes the Measles." Don't you think they aughter?

Oh, the misery of it all, to sit in class and smell the food
Coming from our new cafeteria, it puts you in the mood.

We surely did "Made Believe" at our wonderfur Senior Dance
It was beautiful and we made with romance.

Tommy Cody's orchestra sounded just like a dream
As he played our last dance, we were right on the beam.

Has everyone met Corliss Archer? Well, you did in our class play.
It was really a neaty all along the way.

Thanks goes to our band, peppy cheerleaders, teachers, and teams
Mr. Linn, Dr. McMillan, Mrs. McLaughlin, Mr. Paterick and Mrs. Cook, for it seems

They have held a special part in making our senior year the best
In Beaver High School, barring none of the rest.

The big moment arrives, the person is named
And Mr. Smith joins our Shingas 'Hall of Fame'.

Now all that's left is Baccalaureate, Commencement and Idora Park
Then we'll leave Beaver High, but on our heart we'll bear its mark.

From thee skill and science flow
All our knowledge we thee owe

Thy Maroon and Gray let all men see
Dear Beaver High we bow to thee

Let each son look up to thee
In defeat or victory

Alma Mater we love thee
Always loyal we will be.
